

The Great Basin Training Center is hosting a You Will Not Stand Alone (YWN SA) course in Boise, Idaho February 6-10, 2017. The course is designed to prepare our agencies and organizations for crisis and ensure that no one will ever stand alone in the wake of tragedies. YWN SA stresses the importance of pre-incident planning and training, and provides suggestions on how to support employees and family members when an incident occurs. YWN SA is designed to prepare managers and employees on how to take appropriate action and navigate through the process after a tragedy and provide a professional and competent response .

Course Description:

- Agency Administrator's Guide to Critical Incident Management
- Pre-incident planning, First 24 Hours after the Incident
- Notifications
- Working with Incident Management Teams
- Working with Investigation and Learning teams (CRP, SAI, FLA)
- Family and Hospital Liaisons
- Agency and Survivor Support, Including CISM, Peer Support, EAP
- Resilient Leadership
- Survivor Benefits; Agency and Public Safety Officer Benefits
- Media and The Role of Public Information Officers
- Agency Guidelines for Initial Support, Memorials and Funerals
- Honor Guard

Target Audience: Agency Administrators, Fire and Aviation Managers

Nomination Process: Complete the NWCG Interagency Training Nomination Form and submit to Kelly Woods, kwoods@blm.gov , by December 1, 2016 for consideration to attend.

Great Basin Training Unit

For Any Questions Please Contact

Ron Bollier rbollier@fs.fed.us
Kelly Woods kwoods@blm.gov

